

Kline Brothers

1031 Main St.
THE MONEY BACK STORE.
CLOSED ALL DAY, THURSDAY, SEPT. 16, ON ACCOUNT OF HOLIDAY

NEW GOODS ARRIVED TODAY

Ladies' Fall Suits, worth $12.50, at... $9.98
Ladies' Fall Suits, worth $15.00, at... $10.98
Ladies' Fall Suits, worth $18.00, at... $12.98
Ladies' Fall Suits, worth $22.50, at... $15.98
All Wool Panama Dresses, worth $15.00, at... $9.98
Chiffon Black Taffeta Dresses, worth $18.00, at... $12.98
Black Popover Panama Skirts, worth $12.50, at... $9.98
All Wool Panama Skirts, worth $15.00, at... $10.98
English Vests, warranted all wool, skirts... $5.98
Cluny Lace Coat Collars, something new... 49c each
Imitation Irish Crochet Lace Coat Sets... 98c each
The new deep Venice Lace Coat Collars... 98c each
Yokes and Chemises of Venice Lace... 33c to 69c each
Men's Flannel Shirts, blue and grey... 69c to $1.98 each
Men's White Coat Shirts, cuffs attached, $1.00 value... 69c each

REMEMBER, THE DRESS GOODS AND SILK SALE ENDS
THIS SATURDAY NIGHT. DON'T LOSE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO BUY DRESS GOODS AND SILKS AT 1/2 THEIR REAL VALUE.

Cotton Crib Blankets, worth 59c, at... 44c pair
Cotton Bed Blankets... 49c to $1.39 pair
New Comfortables, 15 styles... 69c to $2.89 each
Hygrade Embroidered Towels, $1.50 value... 98c each
$1.00 Button Vests, all wanted colors... 69c each
$4.00 Black Taffeta Waists, open front... $2.98 each
New Towelings, cotton, half and all linen... 54c to 12 1/2c yard
$2.50 Net Waists, 3 new styles... $1.50 each

YOU'LL PAY LESS FOR IT AT KLINE'S

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Thomas P. Hearn, a clerk at the local post office, has just returned from Atlantic City where he was the local delegate to the United States Convention of the Post Office Clerks. During the convention Mr. Hearn was honored by being nominated on the committee on credentials.

Howard A. Sullivan, formerly assistant superintendent of the Bridgeport Patent Leather Company, left this city today to accept a position with Smythe & Sons of Newark, N. J., dealers in rough and finished leathers. After severing his connection with the Bridgeport Patent Leather Company a few years ago Mr. Sullivan engaged in the leather business for himself, manufacturing leather seats for chairs. In a short time an increase in business forced him to remove to larger quarters on Gilbert street. He will now become assistant superintendent of the Newark firm and at the same time continue his own business at the factory of Smythe & Sons. A banquet was tendered Mr. Sullivan Saturday evening by his fellow citizens at the Bavalone Club, at which he was presented with several gifts.

CASTLES' SUICIDE DUE TO OVERWORK

(Special from United Press.)
New York, Sept. 14.—Inmate friends of John W. Castle, president of the $700,000 Union Trust Company, today declare his suicide last night in the Grand Union Hotel was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork and not to family troubles as had been reported. They say that Mr. Castle was very happy in his home life and that the only reason his wife and children were not with him at the time he killed himself was due to his physician's orders that he should have complete rest.
John W. Castle was one of the best known financiers in the East. He was born in Polk county, Texas, 51 years ago. He built up one of the largest wholesale drug businesses in Texas at Waco, but in 1890 sold out and went to New Orleans, where he bought an immense wholesale grocery firm and later became president of the Hibernian National Bank. In 1904, he became president of the Guaranty Trust Company. During the four years he was its president, deposits grew from $5,000,000 to $70,000,000. In 1908, at the close of the panic, he became president of the Union Trust Company, and the great amount of work that fell on him in clearing up the panic effects broke his health. For several months he has been under the care of physicians and has done no active work. He was a great friend of the late E. H. Harriman and a director in a number of the Harriman railroads.

POINTS OF INTEREST

"A Stitch in Time Saves Nine."
A few moments now devoted to giving your winter coat order to the Nantux Valley Ice Co. will save hours of trouble when winter winds blow. Handy downtown office at 154 Fairfield avenue.

Just For Now
Before the sale of men's Burt & Packard "Korrek Shape" shoes closes, see that you have a pair at the sale price. Guaranteed patent and full finish Burroja leather, perfect fitting shoes, are usually sold for far more than the temporary prices at which they can now be bought. As soon as the sale is over, the regular figures will be resumed at Mollan's.

HILLS CASCARA BROMIDE TABLETS

Most Popular Remedy for Colds

15c per box, 2 for 25c

All Drug Stores sell Hills
Cascara Bromide Tablets

WANT ADS, CHEAP & WORD.

NEW PAY PLAN FOR TEACHERS

Ghost Will Walk for Them in Two Weeks and Will Thereafter Come on
First of Month.

SCHOOLS MOSTLY READY

The disadvantages of the present pay system of the public school teachers were taken into consideration by the members of the Board of Education last evening at their regular monthly meeting, when a committee of three consisting of President Marigold, Secretary Hellen and Superintendent of Schools Dr. Deane was appointed, with power to act, to adopt a new system of payment.
The teachers are obliged to wait till the Wednesday following the regular meeting of the board to receive their salaries on the second Tuesday of the month. Thus the pay day is constantly changing. It was the idea of Dr. Deane that the teachers should be paid the first of each month. It was voted that the teachers be paid two weeks salary after they have worked two weeks. This will be the first pay the teaching force will have received since last June, and will help out considerably. Formerly the teachers waited till after the first meeting in October. It is quite possible the new ruling will be adopted, and will meet with the approval of the teachers. A suggestion was offered that each school elect a principal of each school, who would pay the teachers in that school. Dr. Deane reported that the schools are ready for the opening school year. The possible exception of Prospect and Summerfield, where extensive alterations are being made. At Summerfield regular sessions cannot be conducted for a week at least. Two new kindergarten schools will be added at Maplewood avenue and at Lincoln schools. A meeting of the board of education has been made at these schools for the care of the children, while supplies have been bought.
The resignation of Miss Emily B. Haslem of New Canaan, who was appointed recently as teacher of domestic science, was read and accepted. Miss Haslem stated that though the illness of her mother it will be possible for her to serve. The place is now open, the board at present not having any applicant under consideration. A room at the school for the children had been fitted up for this work, everything that goes to further that end of the children's education being furnished.
The following teachers from the 1909 class of the local Normal school were appointed at an annual salary of $450: The Misses Mary Adams, Joseph A. Fitzroy, Carrie M. Barske and Marion O'Connell.

PRIEST'S ESTATE TO HIS PARISH

Rev. Father Ducey Leaves
All to St. Leo's Church,
Which He Founded
WROTE THE WILL HIMSELF

New York, Sept. 14.—By the will of the late Rev. Thomas J. Ducey, pastor of St. Leo's Church, who died at St. James, L. I., on Aug. 22, all of his estate goes to St. Leo's, founded by him over a quarter of a century ago, subject, however, to an annuity of $500 a year, which is to go to Ellen Toomey, described as "my devoted friend and faithful servant," and a direct bequest of $1,000 to Thomas Murray of Williamsbridge.
The document, which was dated Oct. 15, 1907, and executed May 23, 1905, was somewhat of a departure from the usual form of will and seemed to have been drawn up by the testator himself. The testator stated that he had been to St. Leo's the best years of his life and had been its chief benefactor, spending of his own means more than $100,000 in the building of a slave in every way for its usefulness.

The equity in Father Ducey's house at 16 East Twenty-ninth street, with its contents, except the silverware, goes to the rectory for the priests attached to St. Leo's. The silverware he directed to be made and used as a chalice ciborium for holy mass. The property known as "The Repose for the Stranger" Chapel, adjoining the church, goes to St. Leo's and he directs that the chapel "must be used to carry out the corporal and spiritual works of mercy as a resting place for the dead who died in poverty and need the kindly charity of Christian consideration before interment. Catholics and Protestants alike."
His use, however, is restricted to those who died within the district between Twenty-third and Fifty-ninth streets and East Fourth and Avenue; neither can it be made a reception place for those dying in public or private hospitals unless they be members of St. Leo's.
Other clauses in the will read:
I wish the Most Reverend Archbishop to see that Master Timothy Foley, an altar boy of St. Leo's Church, now attending at the Cathedral College, is provided for during the years of his preparation for the Holy Priesthood, if he continues to give evidence of good character and ability which he now manifests for that purpose.
As during my lifetime I have never sought my own security, and have given freely of my property, without ostentation, to every case of charity appealing to me, I now give and bequeath all that I have left herein named, to St. Leo's Church and Parish, for the interest of religion and for good of souls in St. Leo's Parish. I request of the Most Reverend Archbishop and the pastors who may follow me, and my executors, to see that I am remembered daily in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at St. Leo's altar until the end of time.

Giving directions as to his funeral, the testator said that it was his wish that the obsequies be simple. He desired his body to rest in a plain white wood box, with a plain white cloth cut out on top and running the length and width of the box, the interior to be lined with simple white linen, and no no platitudes or platitudes or other petals should adorn the coffin. The grave he desired to be marked with a simple stone cross, the tablet on which the cross should bear the date of his birth and death, together with his inscription:
In your charity pray for the eternal repose of the soul of Thomas J. Ducey, the founder and first pastor of St. Leo's Church.
In about the last clause of the will he provides that if his country estate at St. James, L. I., should ever be disposed of before his death it be sold at a proper price and the money used to reduce the debt of St. Leo's. The testator added that the house and fifteen acres of land, together with improvements, cost him more than $25,000.
He appointed William E. Iselin and J. Henry Alexander his executors.

E. H. DILLON & CO.

105 Main St.

EARLY FALL MILLINERY

We are displaying all the Advance Styles
in Felt Hats, Satin Covered Hats, Bengaline Covered Hats, Moire Covered Hats—just the hats for present use.

Satin and Silk Covered Hats... 75c to $5.00
Felt Hats... 75c to $4.50
Children's Felt School Hats... 48c to $3.00

E. H. DILLON & CO.

"WISE MIKE" A HIT AT POLI'S

Thomas H. Ince Adds a Side Splitter to School of "Burglar Drama."

"Wise Mike," a one act comedy presented at Poli's last night, was a refreshing bit of rollicking, unctious humor, which kept the house, not in the "road" that accompany slap-stick drama, but in the thoroughly amused state which is represented by quiet, but almost continuous laughter. "Wise Mike," is a burglar. Not a burglar of the "Raffles" type either, but a big, burly, red faced, stubby bearded burglar, with an undeveloped sense of humor, and a pronounced business man. He is a kind of burglar that is seen in a Metropolitan police station once in a while. The humor of the play grows out of the meeting of the burglar with his wife, who pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real burglar, and a real burglar. When Mr. Percy Stubbs, gentleman, who has just a little bit of an "edge," and who to play a joke of the practical type upon his wife, pretends to be a burglar. The wife, for such is the rich plot of the act, overhears her husband conspiring to be a house breaker and plans to bring him to confusion. But neither husband, nor wife, of course, is familiar with the contemplated visit of "Wise Mike," a real